

Langara College's RFABC Related Spring Award Winners

Langara College recently held its term ending Internship Luncheon for students in the Recreation Leadership Diploma Program. As part of this function a number of RFABC related spring awards were presented to deserving students.

Bernard Lee won the Joe Dukowski Memorial Bursary. Jessica Yee was the recipient of the High Pro Sporting Goods Scholarship. Erica Lowney earned the Recreation Foundation of BC Scholarship, Marc Magbitang picked up the Hardeep Baraich Scholarship and the PERC Excellence Scholarship, Jeenu Deol won the Centaur Products Recreation Leadership Scholarship, Eric Ming was presented with the Smith-Rennie Award for Excellence in Youth Work, and Ju-Hyun Park won the CEI Architecture Recreation Leadership Scholarship.

Thanks go out to various sponsors for their continued support of the College's award program.

Jamie Rennie (left) Past President of the RFABC presents Bernard Lee with the 2009 Joe Dukowski Memorial Bursary.

Hardeep Baraich (left) and Davinder Baraich (right) congratulate Marc Magbitang for winning his Langara College Scholarship.

Stephanie Zuke (right) presents Ju-Hyun Park with his CEI Architecture Recreation Leadership Scholarship.

Andy Nemeth (right) was on hand to present Jeenu Deol with her Centaur Products Recreation Leadership Scholarship.

Traci Smith (left) and Jamie Rennie (right) congratulate Eric Ming as the first winner of the Smith-Rennie Award for Excellence in Youth Work.

Vince Kreiser (left) presents Erica Lowney with the Recreation Foundation of BC Scholarship.